SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

14) You shall complete a mental health evaluation and follow any treatment recommendations of the evaluating professional which do not require forced or psychotropic medication and/or inpatient confinement, absent further order of the court. You shall allow reciprocal release of information between the supervising officer and treatment provider. You shall contribute to the cost of treatment according to your ability to pay.

15) You shall abstain from alcohol and shall submit to testing (including urinalysis and Breathalyzer) as directed by the supervising officer, but no more than 6 tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from this substance.

16) You shall undergo a substance abuse evaluation and, if indicated by a licensed/certified treatment provider, enter into and successfully complete an approved substance abuse treatment program, which could include inpatient treatment and aftercare. You shall contribute to the cost of treatment according to your ability to pay. You shall allow full reciprocal disclosure between the supervising officer and treatment provider.

17) You shall not enter into or remain in any establishment where alcohol is the primary item of sale.

18) You shall abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and shall submit to urinalysis testing (which may include urinalysis or sweat patch), as directed by the supervising officer, but no more than 6 tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.

19) You shall submit your person, residence, office, or vehicle to a search, conducted by a probation officer, at a sensible time and manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to search may be grounds for revocation. You shall warn persons with whom you share a residence that the premises may be subject to search.

20) If you are ordered by the government to make child support payments or to make payments to support a person caring for a child, you must make the payments and comply with the other terms of the order.

21) If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person, and requires you to tell the other person about that risk, you must tell the other person and allow the probation officer to confirm that you have told them.

22) You must allow the probation officer to visit you at reasonable times, at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officers to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
